BURN DOWN CHART

The chart displays the progress of a project over a five-day period. The Y-axis represents the number of hours, ranging from 0 to 20. The X-axis represents the date, from Friday, October 18, to Wednesday, October 23. A blue line indicates the total work required (20 hours), and a red line shows the work completed. The red line starts at 20 hours on Friday, October 18, and decreases steadily, reaching 0 hours by Tuesday, October 22. The legend indicates that the blue line represents the total work and the red line represents the work completed.
